Unveiling Marche's Heart, a Symphony of Sea and Rolling Hills

A Journey Through the Provinces of Ancona and Macerata

Welcome to Marche, where verdant hills embrace the Adriatic shore and centuries of art and culture await. Meander through Ancona's bustling harbor and hidden alleyways, uncover Tolentino's Renaissance charm, then revel in Macerata's Baroque elegance. Finally, wander medieval streets and ancient fortifications of Jesi. Off the beaten path, this unique itinerary unlocks the region's best-kept secrets: charming theatres, hilltop villages and panoramas that captivate the heart. Perfect for discerning travelers looking for authentic discoveries and memorable surprises.

Block notes:

Historic Theatres

The magnificent Sferisterio of Macerata, a unique neoclassical structure in Europe, Teatro Lauro Rossi in Macerata, Teatro Pergolesi in Jesi and Teatro delle Muse in Ancona, home to renowned opera and theatre seasons.

Urban Treasures

Explore the beauty and unique character of central and southern Marche through the cities of Ancona, Tolentino, Macerata, and Jesi.

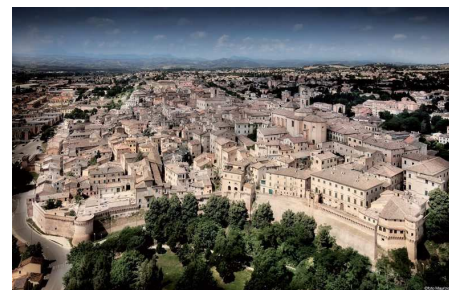

Opera performances in the Marche region

"Don Giovanni" – Dramma giocoso that masterfully blends comedy and tragedy
OR

"L'Olimpiade" – Opera set in ancient Greece, centered on love, deception, and Olympic games
OR

"Il Giudizio di Paride" – Mythological story told through music
OR

"La Bohème" – Lyrical drama that depicts the lives of young artists in 19th-century Paris

Programme:

Day 1 – arrival in Ancona > Jesi

Arrival in Ancona on your own.

In the afternoon, meet with the guide for a city tour. The itinerary begins near the Teatro delle Muse, one of the main theatres in the Marche region. From here, you can start the steep climb (about 15 minutes at a relaxed pace) to Colle Guasco, along a scenic route leading to the Cathedral of San Ciriaco, the iconic monument of the city. Perched in a commanding position, the church is a magnificent example of Romanesque-Byzantine architecture and offers breathtaking views over the Gulf of Ancona.

Descending back towards the sea, you will reach the evocative Old Port, where the Arch of Trajan stands.

After the visit, return to the historic center passing through Piazza del Senato and arriving at the scenographic Piazza del Plebiscito, also known as "Piazza del Papa". Here you can breathe the city's most authentic atmosphere, surrounded by historic buildings, outdoor cafes, and charming corners. At the end of the tour, transfer by own means to Jesi.

Accommodation in reserved rooms at Hotel Federico II 4.

Dinner and overnight at the hotel.

Day 2 – Tolentino > Macerata

Breakfast at the hotel and meeting with the guide. Transfer by your own means to Tolentino. Visit to the Church of San Nicola da Tolentino, featuring its Giottesque chapel, and walk around the main square, featuring a tower displaying three different clocks. Transfer to Macerata and guided tour of the Arena Sferisterio (Lu Sferisteriu). Walk to the city center and lunch at a restaurant with a traditional tasting menu. After lunch, stroll through Piazza della Libertà to admire the Town Hall, the Loggia dei Mercanti, and the Prefecture Palace. Continue on foot to the Basilica della Madonna della Misericordia by Luigi Vanvitelli and its small, wonderful Sanctuary, rich in frescoes, marbles, and stuccoes.

The day in Macerata ends with a guided visit to the Teatro Lauro Rossi, a stunning 18th-century jewel.

Return to Ancona by private means. Free dinner. Overnight.

Day 3 – Jesi

Breakfast at the hotel and meeting with the guide. Walking tour of the city of Jesi, with its charming historic center and medieval walls. The visit begins at Piazza Federico II, a spacious and evocative square traditionally considered the birthplace of the Swabian emperor.

A few steps away stands the Cathedral of San Settimio, with its imposing neoclassical facade. Continuing the walk through medieval views and cobbled streets, you will reach the Palazzo della Signoria, a splendid example of Renaissance architecture and now home to the civic library. Free lunch.

Afterwards, attend the opera performance of:

"Don Giovanni" or "L'Olimpiade" or "Il giudizio di Paride" or "La Bohème" at Teatro Pergolesi.

Return to the hotel by own means. Free dinner. Overnight.

Day 4 – departure from Jesi

EXTRA ITINERARIES

Enhance your experience with one of our optional itinerary extensions, each offering an extra overnight stay for a more complete discovery of the Marche Region.

- Option A invites you to spend a full day exploring the natural and spiritual wonders of Genga, concluding with an overnight stay and departure the following morning.
- Option B builds upon Option A by adding enriching visits on your final day, including a stop in the fascinating town of Fabiano before heading home.

Option A

Day 4 – Jesi > Genga

Breakfast at the hotel and check-out.

Transfer by your own means to Genga, a small medieval city nestled among the rolling hills of the Marche region. Upon arrival, continue by car to the starting point of a short walk leading to the Temple of Valadier, an evocative neoclassical church set within a natural cave. The visit is self-guided and involves a short uphill walk on a paved path (about 15 minutes at a relaxed pace).

Return to the starting point and drive to the large San Vittore parking area, where you can leave your vehicle and take a complementary shuttle to the Grotte di Frasassi.

Entrance and guided tour led by an expert who will accompany the group through a breathtaking underground route filled with enormous stalactites and stalagmites, crystal-clear lakes, and the famous "Infinity Room" (Sala dell'Infinito), one of the largest underground chambers in Europe.

At the end of the visit, return to the parking area and continue by private vehicle to the nearby village of Pierosara (about 5–10 minutes by bus). Lunch at a traditional local restaurant in a panoramic location offering stunning views of the Apennines.

After lunch, transfer by private vehicle to the Hotel Le Grotte 4, a nature-surrounded property featuring a spa, swimming pool, and on-site restaurant. Dinner at the hotel. Overnight.

Day 5 – departure from Genga

IMPORTANT NOTES TO THIS PROGRAMME:

- The Cathedral of San Ciriaco can be reached either on foot or by car or coach. Please note that although the path is easy and equipped with sidewalks, it involves an uphill walk, which may be challenging for guests with low physical endurance or mobility difficulties.
- The Temple of Valadier can be reached on foot ONLY. Please consider that the path is well maintained and free of obstacles, yet it may be challenging for guests with low physical endurance or with mobility difficulties.
- The day in Genga does not include a local guide for each visit: the experience at the Temple of Valadier is self-guided, allowing to fully enjoy the visit at your own pace. During the time at the Grotte di Frasassi, instead, the group will be followed by one of the site's expert guides.
- On the day of the visit, it is mandatory to arrive at the Grotte di Frasassi parking and ticket office at least 30 minutes before the scheduled time to collect entrance tickets.
