

Bologna, Lady of Music

Discovering the thousand jewels of the Italian city

Starting
From Eur 790

4 days / 3 nights

Bologna is a lively university city, a railway hub for thousands of trains. But it's also a beautiful place and a quintessentially musical city. Vibrant and energetic, over the centuries, it has attracted hundreds of excellent musicians as well as passionate music lovers. Since 1763, the undisputed center of such liveliness has been the Teatro Comunale, as well as many other musical institutions that we will discover.

Block notes:

Historical gems – Archiginnasio and its Anatomy Room

Museums - Museo internazionale e Biblioteca della Musica

Music - Private concert by Musicisti di San Petronio

Programme:

Day 1 – arrival in Bologna

Arrival in Bologna by own means. Accommodation at Hotel Internazionale 4 or similar. Welcome dinner in a selected restaurant.

Day 2 - Bologna

Breakfast. Guided visit of the city center by foot: Palazzo Comunale (including Sala Borsa), Fontana del Nettuno, the majestic Basilica di S. Petronio and Palazzo dell'Archiginnasio, formerly the seat of the oldest University in Europe and home of Teatro Anatomico. Lunch with traditional local dishes.

In the afternoon visit of the Musical Bologna. Along Strada Maggiore, our course will take us to the outside of Gioacchino Rossini's home. Afterwards visit of Museo internazionale e Biblioteca della Musica.

Visit of Chiesa di Santa Maria dei Servi, place of ancient musical tradition

PRIVATE CONCERT by Cappella Musicale di San Petronio.

Return to the hotel. Free dinner.

Day 3 - Bologna

Breakfast. In the morning visit of Teatro Comunale and to the Bentivoglio's places, Oratorio di Santa Cecilia and Chiesa di San Giacomo. Free lunch.

In the afternoon visit of Complesso monastico di S. Stefano (or "Le Sette Chiese") and of Basilica di San Domenico. Free dinner.

Day 4 - Bologna and departure

Breakfast and check-out. Guided visit of Accademia Filarmonica and

CONCERTO PRIVATO inside the Accademia

At the end of the concert an aperitif will be served.

Farewell and departure by own means.

INCLUDED IN THE PRICE: 3 nights with breakfast; tour leader; authorized guide; visits as mentioned in the programme; entrance tickets; private concerts in a church; private concert at Accademia Filarmonica; 1 lunch; 1 dinner, 1 aperitif; basic insurance.

NOTE: Possibility to attend an Opera performance at Teatro Comunale or a concert at the Accademia Filarmonica

info@italiainscena.com - www.italiainscena.com

