4 days / 3 nights

Tosca by Puccini is one of the greatest and most known works of the Italian Opera tradition. It's a story of love and death taking place in the 19th century Rome: after the unfortunate adventure of the Roman Republic, the Papal State requires its restoration. We are going to visit the places in which Puccini set the Opera, one location for each act, tragic scenarios of jealousy, love, power and great ideals.
