

Mr. Mozart arrived in Venice!

An itinerary in the 18th century Venice

Starting from Eur 860

3 days / 2 nights

As often happens in history, the "decadence" of a world corresponds to its creativity height and its glorious splendor. Mozart arrived in Venice in 1771, a few years after the fall of the "Serenissima" in the hands of Napoleon. He found a city in full artistic fervour. We are going to bring you inside an "Event Jjourney" in the 18th century Venice!

Block notes:

Accomodation - Palazzo Giovanelli where Mozart and his father Leopold stayed

Music - A private concert at Palazzo Giovanelli around Mozart themes

Basilica di San Marco - Exclusive visit of the Basilica at night

Programme:

Day 1 – Arrival in Venice

Arrival in Venice by own means. Accomodation at Hotel Palazzo Giovanelli & Grand Canal 4*Sup. In the afternoon: walking through the Sestieri of San Polo and Dorsoduro to admire some architectural gems such as Basilica dei Frari, Campo Santa Margherita, Ponte Accademia, Campo Santo Stefano, Teatro La Fenice and Mozart's House. Dinner in a restaurant. Exclusive visit of the Basilica di San Marco at night. Return to the hotel.

Day 2 – Venice

Breakfast. In the morning visit of Museum Ca' Rezzonico and walking to the Zattere to visit the Squero di San Trovaso, one of the few remaining shipyards where gondolas are restored. Free lunch. Free afternoon. Pre-concert aperitif in hotel.

PRIVATE CONCERT AT PALAZZO GIOVANELLI

Music by Mozart and Tartini (Violin and Viola)

Free dinner

Day 3 – Venice and departure

Breakfast and check-out. Visit of Complesso dell'Ospedaletto of Venice (or Chiesa di Santa Maria dei Derelitti): Scala dei Sardi, Cortile delle Quattro Stagioni and Sala della Musica. Visit of Chiesa della Pietà.

Return to the hotel, farewell and departure by own means.

INCLUDED IN THE PRICE:

2 nights with breakfast; tour leader; guided visit with an art historian; welcome dinner (drinks included); exclusive visit of the Basilica di San Marco at night; entrance tickets for Museo Ca' Rezzonico and Chiesa dei Frari; exclusive opening of Chiesa della Pietà and Complesso dell'Ospedaletto; aperitif in hotel; private concert; 72 hours ticket for vaporetto boats; basic insurance

NOTE: Possibility to attend the Regata Storica on the first Sunday of September

Info@italiainscena.com - www.italiainscena.com

